

Congratulations to the Institute of Technology, Sligo on the opening of the new €17 million Science Building named in honour of local Sligo scientist, Charles McMunn.

On behalf of the Church Services Committee of Fleadh Cheoil na h-Eireann 2014, I would like to congratulate & thank all those who organised or participated in the Church Services on the weekends of August 10th & 17th & especially to those who played or sang Irish Music in the churches on those days. I heard very complimentary comments from many visitors to the Fleadh & it was nice to hear that Church communities throughout County Sligo played their part in enhancing the services with Irish music. As I know that many Church Choirs do not sing throughout the Summer months, I would especially like to thank the parishes, that organised for music to be played on these two weekends. The Mass from Sligo Cathedral, celebrated by our new Bishop Kevin Doran, was broadcast on Radio na Gaeltachta and Ocean FM and had the biggest attendance of all Fleadh Events, with over 1,600 people in attendance. As we begin to plan for Fleadh Cheoil 2015, I would welcome any suggestion you may have for next year. Yours sincerely, Imelda Harte, Church Services Committee,
