

Congratulations & well done to all our Summer sporting champions.

Christopher O'Donnell, Newtown became the Irish National U18 400m champion and achieved a championship record. He won silver in the All Ireland 200m. He represented Ireland at the Celtic Games, winning the 400 m and winning with the 4x400m relay team. He also won the 400 m at the International Meeting of Nevilles, Belgium.

Well done also to Colm Bourke & Kieran Eillot who competed in the Glo Health Senior Champions in Dublin. Colm Won Bronze in the long jump while Kerian won Silver in the Men's 200 meters.

Congratulations to our U13 girls who won the All Ireland Community Games Indoor Soccer last weekend in Athlone. This team included Kathy Harrison, Lorraine Oates, Eimear Messenger, Marianne Feeney, Emer Carroll, Sarah Kiernan, Eimear Cannon and Clara Mitchell. A big thank you to their coaches Donal Harrison & Phil Messenger.

Well done to Maeve Poole who won a bronze medal in Art in the National final of the community games

Well done to our Senior Athletics teams who took part in the National Half Marathon at the beginning of August. The men's team were fourth overall and the women's team were fifth. The mens team was Tommy Kelly, Craig Brennan, Darragh Currid, Conor McCann & Jimmy Currid. The womens team was Aisling Van Rensburg, Andrea Horgan, Alison O'Sullivan & Linda Lally. A big thank you and congrats also to the senior team coach Michael Carney.

Mona McSharry represented Ireland at the European Games (held every four years) at Baku where she swam in 5 events. She progressed to the semifinals individually & swam in a final with the relay team which produced an Irish Junior record. She made 6th place in the competition. Later in the summer Mona swam in the Irish Age Group Championships winning 6 golds and 1 bronze. Now she is training for the Sainesbury School Games in September in Manchester where she will be part of the Irish team to compete against England, Scotland and Wales. The best of luck Mona. Mona trains with Marlins in Ballyshannon.

Well done also to all the other athletes, artists, gymnasts etc who represented themselves and their parish in various events over the summer. Whilst they didn't bring home medals they trained hard over the summer and represented Their parish very well

Words from Pope Francis on Consecrated Life

"The Lord calls us to follow each day with courage and fidelity. He has given us the great gift of choosing us as his disciples, inviting us to proclaim with joy as the Risen One, but it requires us to do so by our words and the witness of our everyday lives. The Lord is the only God of our life, and He invites us to rid ourselves of many idols and worship Him alone.
