Battle of the Somme centenary commemorations

On July the 1st the Battle began with the military certainly it would last a few weeks. However, it did not conclude until Nov, with the massive costs of human life 141 days later. 1 million died or injured. We remember so many brave men who gave their lives for the value of freedom – remember Edward McGloin, Grellagh Castlegal uncle to Mae Gillen, Moneygold who died at age 26 & is buried in Thiepval Memorial Cemetery France.

STOP (Start Telling Others Prevention)

Founded in 2004 by families who were bereaved by suicide. We are a community, voluntary body that works to prevent suicide by informing educating and promoting positive suicide prevention policies throughout the west and north-west of Ireland. Our offices are located upstairs at the Beepark Resource Centre in Manorhamilton Co. Leitrim. We are holding our AGM on 8th July.

Tidy Town

Our annual tidy town church gate collection will be held this weekend July 2nd and 3rd after mass.

Cliffoney Country Market

The local Country Market will be in Cliffoney Hall this coming Sunday 3rd July, 11 - 1pm

We would like to thank everyone who has supported the arrival of the Market and invite anyone who produces at home; be it home baking or bags of turf, to consider getting involved. This is your local market and we can all help it grow.

Come along and support your local community over a cup of tea and some traditional fayre.
