What is the 8th Amendment?

The 8th Amendment to the Constitution of Ireland introduced a new subsection of Article 40, which now reads:
“The State acknowledges the right to life of the unborn and with due regard to the equal right to life of the mother, guarantees in its laws to respect, and, as far as practicable, by its laws to defend and vindicate that right”.

What does the 8th Amendment do?

It provides constitutional protection for both mothers and their unborn babies.
