Everyone who has experienced the loss of someone close knows about absence and presence and "presence in absence", a key theme of the feast of the Ascension. Those who have gone before us have really gone, but they are also part of our lives in a new way and, as a result, are still present. The 1988

Roman Missal puts it eloquently:

He has not abandoned our human condition

But has filled us with hope

That where he, our head, has gone before us

We, his members, shall follow after.

Prayer: Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.

Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy.

Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.

Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Amen Pope Francis

Ascension

We saw his light break through the cloud of glory	Is whole and Heaven-centred now, and sings,
Whilst we were rooted still in time and place	Sings in the strength that rises out of weakness,
As earth became a part of Heaven's story	Sings through the clouds that veil him from our sight,
And heaven opened to his human face.	Whilst we ourselves become his cloud of witness
We saw him go and yet we were not parted	And sing the waning darkness into light,
He took us with him to the heart of things	His light in us, and ours in him concealed,
The heart that broke for all the broken-hearted	Which all creation waits to see revealed.

Malcolm Guite

Exam Time... Our thoughts and prayers are with all students sitting for the Leaving Cert. and Junior Cert. this coming week. Most of all, may you give of your best and be satisfied with your effort. Hopefully the papers will be fair and reasonable. Chúile rath agus dhea ghuí. Fr. Christy

Exam Prayer

God, stay close to me today, guide my study and light my way. Ease and comfort me, with peace and love. May I remember the things I need and understand all I study and read. May I strive to give my best, and do myself justice in each test. And during the moments I may feel stressed;

I will try to remember the ways I'm blessed. And if there are times I feel at sea, help me to trust that you are here with me. Amen. Fr. Chris O'Donnell
