I would like to acknowledge everybody associated with my recent retirement. Sincere thanks to Fr.

Christy McHugh who very kindly celebrated Holy Mass with a lovely reflection and words of appreciation of my time at St Molaise Early Learning, all those who participated in the liturgy of the mass and made it such a special occasion and to all the congregation. Sincere thanks to all who sent mass bouquets, gifts, floral tributes and good wishes. To the management and staff of Lang's for providing the after celebration and to Ciaran Feeney for the delightful disco music a very special thanks.

Sincere thanks to the children, parents and staff of St Molaise Early Learning for their lovely tributes, presentation and good wishes to me on the day of my retirement. And finally to the many people who were involved in the organisation of the events around the occasion, a very special thank you.
