Art Exhibition – Fri 23rd Aug, Grange Parochial Hall, 7.30pm to 6pm, Sat 31st Aug

Following on from last year's local ART EXHIBITION , a collaboration of local Artists (adults, teenagers and children) of all genres, from Counties Sligo, Donegal, Leitrim and Roscommon (and some from further afield) will once again gather to showcase their marvellous work at the annual Art Exhibition on Friday August 23rd at Grange Parochial Hall, from 7.30pm and continuing until 6pm, Saturday August 31st. Local artist Eamonn Dowdican who is the force behind this exhibition whose work is mainly landscape in oils, inspired by the beauty of the local Sligo countryside, teaches and advises all of these participating artists regularly at his art room in Grange throughout the year. He believes that there is an artist in everyone of us only waiting to emerge. Eamonn is always delighted by the standard of local talent and proudly relishes the opportunity to facilitate these talented people to come together every year to exhibit their work. This is a great chance for everyone to come along , free of charge and marvel at the skills of all of these talented artists and enjoy this opportunity to view and even purchase some original pieces of art. This years exhibition will be in aid of the local St Vincent de Paul. All contributions will be very welcome.

Annual Mullaghmore Hospice Race/Walk

This year, the annual Hospice event takes place one day earlier than usual on Saturday 10th August and one hour earlier than usual at 4pm. This 3 ml race/walk which started in 1997 has always been a great fund raiser for the Hospice. This year it will be chip timed and we hope to attract more runners plus walkers, local and otherwise, who are here to enjoy the weekend.
