Flooding

Thanks to all who so generously helped out on Friday evening when the Grange river burst it's banks and flooded the S.N. Molaise Primary School grounds and the Grounds of the Meadows Housing Estate. Particular thanks to Garda Pat of Grange Garda Station who had to stand in the wind and rain for a few hours as the flood outside St. Kevin's Oratory, Munninane became a danger to traffic. I'm sure there were many other good neighbourly gestures made over those frightening few hours on Friday evening as a result of torrential rain and high tide coinciding.

Elphin-Kumba Mission Agreement

In 2018 the Diocese of Elphin entered into a mission agreement with the newly-established Diocese of Kumba in Cameroon. The Diocese of Kumba is committed to sending two priests on mission to our diocese, one of whom is already here and another scheduled to arrive in October. The Diocese of Elphin has agreed to assist with the formation of two senior Seminarians from Kumba at St. Patrick's College, Maynooth. They are beginning their theology studies on 1st September. Bishop Kevin invites parishes or individual parishioners, if they so wish, to participate in this exercise of solidarity by contributing towards the cost of providing for the two seminarians in Maynooth over the next three years. Contributions or enquires can be made to Bishop Kevin at St. Mary's, Sligo. Please remember them and our own two seminarians in your prayers as they begin this academic year.

First Friday Calls will be done on Wed 4th / Thur 5th Sept
