

REMEMBERING IN NOVEMBER

Our own tradition of remembering our dead in this month of November links us with so many. Some dear one may have passed away twenty years ago and yet it feels like last week. We are mourning someone who died recently, and we wonder will we ever get over the pain. This month helps us keep the connection with those gone before us. The river of life is deeper than what we can see.

May they be at peace with God as we follow in their shadow.
