As I write I’m hoping the weather will be fine. I even included that intention, along with many others on my Lough Derg 3 day pilgrimage during the week.

NORTH SLIGO ATHLETIC CLUB

-So proud, great motivation for us all-
In 1914 the Irish 400m title was won by Andy Heaney from Clare Morris and it took 104 years before a Connacht man regained that title. In the six years since, there has been different medal winners alongside Chris O’Donnell North Sligo Athletic Club who has won 5 Gold & 1 Silver and has been the only athlete to win more than one medal over the six years...
An outstanding and remarkable feat.

Congratulations Chris!
