Lenten Devotion: Devotional exercises that harmonise with the Lenten season are to be encouraged, for example, 'The Stations of the Cross' They should help foster the liturgical spirit with which the faithful can prepare themselves for the celebration of Christ's paschal mystery. On the Wednesday before the first Sunday of Lent, the faithful receive the ashes, thus entering into the time established for the purification of their souls. This sign of penance, a traditional biblical one, has been preserved among the Church's customs until the present day. It signifies the human condition of the sinner, who seeks to express his guilt before the Lord in an exterior manner, and by so doing express his interior conversion, led on by the confident hope that the Lord will be merciful. This same sign marks the beginning of the way of conversion, which is developed through the celebration of the sacrament of penance during the days before Easter. The blessing and imposition of ashes should take place either in the Mass or outside of the Mass. In the latter case, it is to be part of a liturgy of the word and conclude with prayers of the faithful. Ash Wednesday is to be observed as a day of penance in the whole church, one of both abstinence and fasting.

“Remember that our Blessed Mother Mary is close to you, just as she was close to Jesus at the foot of the Cross. And she will never leave you all alone”. This Sunday marks World Day of the Sick which was dedicated by St. John Paul II as a day when we pray especially for all who are ill and for those who care for them.

Forms of Friday Penance

- The following are suggested as ways of fulfilling Friday Penance:
- Abstaining from meat or some other food;
- Abstaining from alcoholic drink or smoking;
- Making a special effort at involvement in family prayer;
- Visiting the Blessed Sacrament;
- Making the Stations of the Cross;
- Fasting from all food for a longer period than usual and perhaps giving what was saved to the needy;
- Helping the poor, sick, old or lonely.
