We will conclude at the Apparition Chapel.

Creation Walk - The Creation Walk begins at Knock Museum car park and meanders through the natural woodland pathways along the grounds at Knock Shrine. These pathways offer a quiet space in which to take time to appreciate nature, to listen to birdsong and to take time for personal reflection.

OLYMPICS: Last Monday we watched our Mona give of her very best and what a glorious feeling came over us when the Bronze medal was secured. Glory Alleluia!! Congrats Mona and to all who have this possible for her especially her hard-working family. In the midst of this dreary summer weather Mona brought us all into sunshine. Comhghairdeas.

There's something very lovely about the fact that Ireland's first medal in the 2024 Olympics in Paris was won by a swimmer from Sligo (congratulations to the brilliant Mona McSharry!) one hundred years after Jack B Yeats, a man with deep-rooted Sligo connections – also in Paris – for a painting about swimming!
