Bless them O Lord, and keep them safe always in your love.

Prayer of Saint Augustine

Too late have I loved you, O Beauty so ancient, O Beauty so new.

Too late have I loved you! You were within me but I was outside myself, and there I sought you! In my weakness, I ran after the beauty of the things you have made.

You were with me, and I was not with you.

The things you have made kept me from you – the things which would have no being unless they existed in you!

You have called, you have cried, and you have pierced my deafness.

You have radiated forth, you have shined out brightly, and you have dispelled my blindness.

You have sent forth your fragrance, and I have breathed it in, and I long for you.

I have tasted you, and I hunger and thirst for you.

You have touched me, and I ardently desire your peace.

St Augustine of Hippo 354 -430AD

Born in Thagaste in Africa of a Berber family. He was brought up a Christian but left the church early and spent a deal of time seriously seeking the truth until at length through the prayers of his mother St Monica and the teaching of St Ambrose of Milan, he was converted back to Christianity & baptized in 387, shortly before his mother's death. Augustine has a brilliant legal & academic year, but after his conversion he returned home to Africa & led an ascetic life. He was elected bishop of Hippo & spent 34 years looking after his flock, teaching & strengthening them in the faith & protecting them against the errors of the time. He wrote an enormous amount & left a permanent mark on both philosophy & theology. His most notable work "Confessions" is dazzling in style & deep in content.

The Augustines – the order of priests, brothers & sisters which Pope Leo XIV was a member and the Prior General for 12 years was founded on the inspiration of St Augustine. They have a church in Galway city, Limerick city, Cork & Dublin.
