The Prayer of Pope Leo For the Special Jubilee Year of Saint Francis

Saint Francis, our brother, you who eight hundred years ago went to meet Sister Death as a man at peace, intercede for us with the Lord.
In the Cross of San Damiano you recognised true peace.
Teach us to seek in Christ the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall.
You who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world erects borders, In this time plagued by conflict and division, intercede so that we may become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ. Amen.

Pope Leo XIV approved the advancement of the beatification cause for Boys Town founder Father Edward J. Flanagan, declaring him "Venerable."

The Irish-born priest, revered for his revolutionary approach to caring for homeless and impoverished children in the 20th century, famously said there was "no such thing as a bad boy, only bad environment, bad modeling, and bad teaching." His life and legacy were immortalized in the 1938 movie Boys Town, starring Spencer Tracy, who won an Oscar for his portrayal of the priest. Thanks to his ministry to young boys in Omaha, Nebraska, Flanagan was invited to review the child welfare conditions in Japan and Korea in 1947, and the following year in Austria and Germany. While in Germany, Flanagan had a heart attack and died on May 15, 1948. His body rests at Dowd Memorial Chapel of the Immaculate Conception in Boys Town, Nebraska. The Pope declared the "heroic virtue" of Father Flanagan alongside four other holy men and women on March 23. The Pope declared the "heroic virtue" of Father Flanagan be advanced to "Venerable" on March 23rd. Fr. Flanagan was born Ballymoe Co. Galway – a parish in our diocese of Elphin. He attended Drimatemple NS and Summerhill College, Sligo; emigrating to USA with his family at a young age
