Please remember in your prayers: Mary Watters (nee Kelly) Newtownward, Grange, and formerly Chapel Road, Cliffoney. Predeceased by her husband Paddy (2011) and daughter Anne McGloin 2019. Our sincere sympathy to her daughter Martina Ward and sons Patrick, Gerard, Michael, and Eamon, sons-in-law John & Thomas, daughters-in-law Siobhan and Joan, her 10 grandchildren and four greatgrandchildren; her nephews and nieces, cousins and friends. Funeral mass was offered in Grange Church on September 11th with burial in Ahamlish Cemetery.

Coast Stories of the Spanish Armada – A Gala Performance of Music & Song, Spoken Words & Visuals – With Band of the Spanish Navy and Atlantic Coast Ensemble, Sligo. GRANGE PARISH CHURCH, FRIDAY 18th SEPTEMBER @ 8pm.

Tickets €20, available on EVENTBRITE and www.spanisharmadaireland.com

Remembering the Armada, the annual four-day commemorative festival, will take place in Sligo on the weekend of Sept 17th – 20th. The festival includes the Spanish Armada National Conference, which will feature experts from Spain & Ireland, outlining the latest Armada research as well as revealing the Armada shipwrecks told through virtual reality, and the launch of a new Armada Trail.

Mass of Friendship – The Admiral's Cross and Sash is being presented to Grange Church on next Saturday night, and which I have the honour of accepting on behalf of our Church Community. We are privileged to have the honour bestowed on us. This is the only time that the Navy Admiral's Cross and Sash has been presented to a church outside of Spain.

EWTN – Eternal Word Television Networks – A free to air Catholic TV Station based in the USA, I know many of you tune into it. The Irishmen leading it for many years – presenter Colm Flynn (Co. Clare) and cameraman Patrick Leonard (Carney) will be with us for the Armada celebrations this year. A sincere failte to them.
