Persecution of Christians – Fact Sheet
The persecution of Christians worldwide remains a serious issue with widespread discrimination, violence and human rights abuses.
Regional Breakdown – Middle East and North America: Once the cradle of Christianity, the number of Christians has drastically declined, particularly in Iraq and Syria, where ISIS and civil wars have devastated Christian communities.
- Africa: The Sachel region and northern Nigeria have become extremely dangerous for Christians, with violence stemming from Islamist extremist groups.
- Asia: Nationalist movements in countries like India and Myanmar have led to increases violence and discrimination against Christians, with attacks on churches and restrictions on religious conversions.

Forms of Persecution – Physical Violence: Torture, imprisonment and murder are common, with open attacks on Christians, often resulting in mass killings or displacement.
- Property and Church Destruction: in countries like Pakistan and Egypt, churches are frequently attacked, vandalized, or demolished. Often, believers face legal obstacles in constructing new places of worship.
- Legal Restrictions: laws against 'blasphemy', anti-conversion' laws or against 'apostasy' are used to intimidate and criminalise Christians in countries like Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and Iran.

Statistics and Impact – Church Attacks: thousands of churches have been attacked or destroyed in countries like Nigeria, Sri Lanka and the Philippines.
- Martyrdom: Estimates vary, but thousands of Christians are killed each year due to their faith. More have been martyred in the last 100 years than the previous 1,900 years of Christian history.
- Imprisonment and Detention: Many Christians face arbitrary arrest and detention in places like China, where unregistered house church gatherings are tightly monitored.
